he had to say in regard to Mr. Williams's statement. He replied that there was really nothing to say, as the weather was too warm for such heated controversy; and, besides, the injunction matter was simply a legal question, which it was better to discuss quietly in the couris than angrily in the newspapers.

"It has absolutely no bearing on the question of handling the crowds at the reunion, else it would not have been sought at this time." said Captain Guigon, referring to the injunction.

In regard to the action of the Street Quimittee, Mr. Guigon said: "We had hoped that they would give us the right to bandle our part of the crowd in our own way by the Main-street convection, but, as they thought differently, we will cheerfully acquiesce, and do the very best we can in the method they have laid down for us. In the interests of the revonion, we have for the time being buried the hatchet with the Traction Company, and will earnestly co-operate with them in the disposition of the immense crowds expected."

ATTACKS OF THE A. P. A.

Cardinal Gibbons on Civil and Religious Liberty.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 18.-Through Rev. Dr. Stafford, of St. Patrick's church, this city, a prominent Republican, who held a foreign mission under President Harrison, addressed several questions to Cardinal Gibbons relative to the recent denials of religious liberty and attacks of the American Protective Association on the Catholic citizens of the country. The Cardinal sent the following reply: "Cardinal's Residence,

In the government of the United States the great Catholic Church has never used or perverted its acknowledged power by seeking to make politics subserve its own advancement.

"Moreover, it is our proud boast that we have never interfered with the civil and political rights of any who differ from us in religion. We detound the same rights for ourselves, and nothing works and well be content with nothing more, and will be content with nothing

"Not only is it the duty of all parties distinctly to set their faces against the false and un-American principles thrust forward of late; but, much as I regret the entire identification of any religious body as such with any political party, I am convinced that the members of the religious body whose rights, civil and religious, are attacked, will naturally and unanimously espouse the cause of the party which has the courage openly to party which has the courage openly avow principles of civil and religious lib-erty, according to the Constitution. NORFOLK, VA., May 18 .- (Special.)was illustrated this afternoon, when the Eliuebirds chattered out a victory from the locals after it looked as if they were going to be shut out. For five innings neither side had made an error, McGee, 1b. and only one run had been made. Both Pfanmiller and Tannehill had been pitching gilt-edge ball, the run scored being a homer by Ballentyne the first time he stepped to the plate. In the sixth the locals added three to this by clean hitting, and victory was seen in the distance, for sure. But, sad to relate, at this stage, Planmiller was taken sick, and Gilroy went in. In the sixth inning, after Wentz had made two errors, Wells made two-bagger and drove both men in. scoring shortly after on a wild throw by air, and the Biuebiros kept a chattering.
Tannehill settled down, and allowed no more runs, but Blankenship, the Manchester hero, who succeeded Girroy in the eighth, he having retired on account of a split finger, allowed the visitors to win out by hitting.

A VERY LOOSE GAME. In Which the Farmers Cleaned Up Portsmouth.

PETERSBURG, VA., May 18,-(Spe-made their first appearance here this afternoon, and created anything but a favorable impression, being defeated by the score of 14 to 8. The Farmers were the score of 14 to 8. The Farmers were reinforced by Raffert and Packard. The former played first huse, while Packard did the pitching. Packard was simply invincible until the eighth inning, as only one hit had been secured off his delivery, and it looked very much like a shutout. But the visitors seemed to size him up in the eighth and ninth innings, securing ten hits and scoring eight runs. Taken as a whole, it was a very loose game. McNamara twirled for the visitors, and was hit quite freely. Below will be found the score:

General Newman arrived in the city Sunday morning, and spent the afternoon in driving over the city, in company with General Peyton Wise, Colonel Murphy, and Hon

George D. Wise, General Newman was seen at Murphy's Hotel yesterday morning by a Dispatch reporter. In reply to a question from the scribe as to what arrangements had been made for the entertainment of the veterans from his State, the General said: "The St. Louis Camp will be quartered at the Jefferson Hotel, while division headquarters will be located at this (Murphy's) hotel. There will not be less than 150 members of the St. Louis Camp who will attend the reunion, and all of the other seventy camps throughout the State will be represented."

DETAILS OF THEIR TRIP. In regard to their trip here, General Newman said: "We will leave St. Louis Saturday night, and Sunday morning will be entertained by the camps at Louiswille, and at noon of the same day by the veterans at Lexington, Ky. We will also stop over for a short while at Win-chester and Mt. Sterling. We will arrive in Richmond at 8:30 A. M. on the 25th of June, over the Chesapeake and Oble selfred.

"There is one thing I wish you would say for me," continued the General, "and that is that I am much pleased with Richmond and the peeple here. I am perfectly satisfied with the result of my trip and with the quarters I have secured for our veterans during their stay in this city during the reunion. And another thing is that the prices charged by your hotels for the accommodations are very reasonable. Indeed, I was astonished at the terms offered me, as I did not expect such for an occasion of this sort."

SPONSOR AND HER MAIDS. SPONSOR AND HER MAIDS.

Speaking of the appointment of the sponsor for his State, General Newman said: "You know I wrote your paper that we had so many pretty girls that it was a difficult matter to choose from them. The sponsor and alternate, however, will be appointed on June 1st. We will also select about ten or fifteen misids of honor, and they will be the very prettiest girls in St. Louis, and daughters of our leading businers and professional-men there."

General Newman said that St. Louis was going to make every effort to get the next reunion. The General left on the next reunion. The General left on the 2:15 train for his home.

designated in formation and on the marks, and, at the same time, herehood the effect of the whole column.

It is again earnestly urged that each camp will report to these headquarters, at the earliest moment practicable, the number of men that they will bring, uniformed, partly uniformed, and without uniform; time of arrival, by what route, how long to remain, and with what music, so that all arrangements can be made to promptly quarter them on arrival, and to have a banner ready for each camp that may come.

It is further suggested that the camps
than every historic flas will bring with them every historic flag that they can to add to the interest of the occasion.

Keystone Hose-Supporters.

Special exhibition of the celebrated Keystone Hose-Supporters at Temple, Pemberton, Cordes & Co.'s, Everybody invited to inspect them. Mass Kitty Cassel, an expert in that line, will take pleasure in showing them.

If you want a clasp that will not cut or tear the hose, buy the Keystone. It you want a Hose-Supporter suspended from the shoulder, one which takes off that dead-weight and pull, one which will straighten up the shoulders, and keep them straight. If you want a Walst, on which to suspend the clothing, one where every button is always in place, no matter the size of walst; a garment with which you cannot find a single objection, buy a Feelswell Walst and Hose-Supporter.
